

UNLOCK AN ADVENTURE

Tiny travel addicts will love the new TopoTogo travel book. This fun guide to Singapore features family-friendly trails, cool secret places and a host of fun facts. Its heroine, Lily, will whisk you around the Little Red Dot so you can find out more about this picturesque city and its culture. In the app, there are lots of hidden treasures that your children can discover, as well as mini maps and customised e-cards they can send to their friends. For explorers ages six and upwards. Priced $18.90. Visit topotogo.com

BIG SCREEN BREAKS

Kids will love these holidays inspired by their favourite films

ULTIMATE SLEEPOVER

Travelling tots will love The Mark's Slumber Party at The Mark hotel. When you book a suite at this New York hotel, a team will install a customised teepee for your kids in the room. In the evening, your kids get to watch an in-room family movie and enjoy chocolate milk and cookies, before waking up to a healthy breakfast in the morning. Suites from $849, a night. Visit themarkhotel.com

JUNGLE BABY

Your tots are sure to go wild for the latest Jungle Book film when it hits the big screen this summer. Take them to Taj Safari Lodge in Madhya Pradesh, India, and discover the lush landscapes of Seoni that inspired the book. Each day, the team take guests on mini safaris where your mini-mes might be able to spy Mowgli's friends. Priced from $330. Visit tajsafaris.com

FEEL THE FORCE

Follow Rey and BB-8 to the Forest Moon of Endor (or should we say the Forest of Dene in the UK?). Little ones can retrace the steps of their favourite Star Wars characters at Puzzle Wood; then head to Go Ape (goape.co.uk) to whizz through the woods on ziplines. Guests can stay at the super chic Tudor Farmhouse Hotel. Priced from $400, tudorfarmhousehotel.co.uk

JUST KEEP SWIMMING

This year we're going to be looking for Dory's ma and pa in Finding Dory. Take them to The One&Only Hayman Island at the Great Barrier Reef where they offer snorkelling trips. Priced from $796 per night. Visit oneandonlyresorts.com

BAZAAR LOVES... Freddie Fire Engine by Trunki. This buy comes with a helmet and firefighter's axe (should any pets need rescuing en-route to the airport). About $97, bloomandgrowdirect.com
